Quick Update

Hi Friend,

IN THE NEWS

You may have already heard the recent BBC Radio Berkshire interviews and articles. Over the last few hours, local newspapers have published articles too. You can pick them up at your local newsagent. Alternatively, read them via our website.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The Ceremony of the Keys has certainly created a lot of activity on social media. Many photographs have been posted already regarding the day. And of times past too! Please keep them coming as we record the history for future generations.

We've made an exciting addition to our social media presence - TheSwanWindsor on Instagram. One of our supporters is a bit of a media guru and is creating some innovative animations and time lapse photography. Well worth following to see the regular updates.

CLEARANCE DAY

A huge thank you to everyone who has signed up for our site clearance this weekend. There has been an overwhelming response and as a result we now have closed the intake for site clearance on Saturday 9th & Sunday 10th February. Emails have been sent to all the volunteers.

SUPPORTING THE INITIAL RENOVATIONS

We also need support in the way of packing materials, cleaning supplies and cleaning equipment. We are in need of consumables to help with the clear out. Can you help?

HELPING THE RENOVATION

THE SKANGSTERS

The Skangsters are an energetic and accomplished nine-piece band from Reading who present their own inimitable style of Ska, Reggae and Two Tone classics. As well as their own gigs, they provide support for bands such as Bad Manners, The Selector, Squeeze and The Dualers.

They are playing The Old Court in Windsor on Saturday 30th March. The sale of tickets is going well. Any proceeds will be donated to our cause. Don't miss out, buy some tickets today.

THE SKANGSTERS
