

The Swan

Site Clearance Day Sunday

Hi Friend,

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Today was a truly fantastic show of community spirit. It was overwhelming to see you all there today to help us clear tonne after tonne of "stuff" from the pub. Your energy, enthusiasm and hard work was gratefully received. We really do appreciate the time you gave to us today.

Some photos and stories have already appeared on Facebook. Who can forget Kate in "those" heels"? The carpet flying out the window? And there are many, many more tales too. We do hope people will share. We will be adding them all to our "Swan library" and using them all over the place. Big thank you.

BIG NEWS: we are going to continue the work on Sunday.

We want to leverage the success of today and make a big drive forward so we can open as soon as possible.

Some of you noted on your form that you are available to help us on Sunday. Some today also said they would be able to help if needed. So please, can you help again? It's a big ask but together we can make a huge step forward.

The work we would like to undertake tomorrow is:

- Strip wallpaper
- Cleaning

- Sorting
- Tip runs

As with today we will be running two sessions, again please arrive at the start of your session for induction & introduction to the work that is planned.

If you are willing and able to come tomorrow, we will welcome you with open arms (and a hot cup of tea!). If you have volunteered already, thanks and don't worry we have your details and just turn up. If not, please can you send a reply to lexie.sparks@theswanwindsor.co.uk indicating the session you can attend:

- AM: 9am – 12.15pm
- PM: 12.30pm – 4pm (it is more than likely we will finish earlier than 4pm)

If you can bring any of the following equipment with you that would also be of great help:

- Wallpaper stripping equipment (scrapers, solution, steamers, extension leads)
- Brooms
- Dustpans & brushes
- Cable clips
- Leaf blowers
- Jet washers

Note: just a wee reminder to please label all of your equipment please.

As for future opportunities for volunteering, as soon as we have details of what we need in terms of volunteering days and supplies we will be in touch.

Thank you once again for your support,

Lexie Sparks
