

The Swan

FRIDAY UPDATE

Dear Friend and <<Partner's First Name>>,

It's that time of the week again so here's a quick update on what has been happening.

Volunteer Day - A big thanks to everyone !

The volunteer day held on Saturday was another huge success. The gents toilet was fully gutted and is now ready for the next stage of refurbishment. Lots of rubble was cleared from the bar area and a great start was made on sanding and preparing for decoration. Volunteer days are so helpful to get tidied and organised for the next stage of building works. Our website has its usual photo gallery of the day.

Renovation Update

On Monday, the building committee held its first meeting inside The Swan, a dusty affair around a temporary table and some of the old pub chairs. The venue was fitting though, as some important decisions were taken regarding the future layout of the bar area.

The committee has also continued to focus on getting the design finalised for the ladies and gents toilets.

Final plans are coming in for electrical work to commence and the process of putting the premises through a thorough fire risk assessment has begun, to ensure we are adopting best options for fire safety.

The Skangsters

The performance by the 11-strong Skangsters at The Old Court on Saturday was a great success. The standing area was packed full of revellers and the total sum raised for The Swan, after expenses, was around £500.

Some photos and videos of the gig are currently being added to our website.

Loans

There's still time for those of you as yet not invested to join in - with a start-up loan, large or small, which we will pay back with twice that value in food and drink from The Swan as soon as funds allow.

And there's now an added incentive to join in....

All investors in The Swan, be they shareholders or loanees, will automatically become part of the members' club for all Swan benefactors.

Full details of this exciting new initiative will be communicated in the coming weeks.

How to invest

Have a good weekend!

Warm regards,

Will & Richard
