FRIDAY UPDATE (part 1)

20th September

Dear Friend and <<Partner's First Name>>,

WINDSOR FRINGE

As you know, the Artists Open House event is coming next weekend (28th and 29th September). We are really looking forward to hosting some of their work and to being one of the venues where great artwork will be on display. To make this event even more convivial at The Swan, we will be offering BBQ food on the Saturday – thanks to volunteer chefs Ian and Tony – as well as brunch on Sunday.

QUIZ NIGHT

After the success of our first Quiz Night last week, when The Swan was packed to the rafters and the competition was high-spirited and friendly, we are announcing the date for the next Quiz Night. Please put it in your diary: Wednesday 16th October, starting 8pm. The format will be similar to last time, but the acoustics will be better for the courtyard... No prior booking is required. And may the best team win!

SWISHING

We loved this initiative of a clothes swap at The Swan, not only for people to change up their wardrobes for the autumn but also because it's a great way of recycling and socialising at the same time. It appears that many of you liked this idea too, and there was much swapping as well as generous clothing donations. We will organise another event with a little more notice next time, as some of you have requested. Any clothes that are eventually left will be donated to charity.

WIFI

We will have WIFI up and running at The Swan from this week, for those of you that need to check your socials or go anywhere in the world at the tap of a few keys. Make us your home from home, when you want to browse online over a great cup of coffee or over a pint.

BOOK CLUB NEXT WEEK

Theresa Rooney runs the Book Club, a wonderfully relaxed and informal gathering. There is no set book to read, and some of those who attended our very first Book Club evening simply shared stories about the books they are reading. If you're interested, please come along to our next Book Club evening on Wednesday 25th September, and be part of the story!

RUGBY WORLD CUP

For those who do not want to travel as far as Japan, you can watch all the Rugby World Cup games much closer to home in Clewer. The All Blacks are the most likely team to lift the Webb Ellis Cup in Yokohama, but it's even more likely that any one of a number of other teams will deny them their third world crown in a row. Watch the drama unfold in one of the most open Rugby World Cup events ever!

Full details of our coverage with the match dates and times will be available later tonight via email and on our social media.

BUILDING UPDATE

The guys are still working hard at it and the update will follow later tonight.

Part two of our Friday update will be sent later this evening. Watch out for it! Until then, enjoy your Friday evening.

Warm regards,

Will and Richard
