

CELEBRATIONS CONTINUE

Friday 20th December

Dear Friend and <<Partner's First Name>>,

It's been a busy week down at The Swan. We've had the privilege of hosting The Posada on Sunday, the Datchet Morris Dancers performed on Monday, our regular quiz on Wednesday, and live music from the Amp Cats on Thursday. The pub has been really busy with a real cross section of our community, and dare we say it, pub regulars now.

We are posting similar photos and videos on social media, our YouTube channel and on our website. Go on!, have a look. Also please post yours too or send them into our webmaster.

Paddy's Pub Crawl

Friday 20th, 5pm

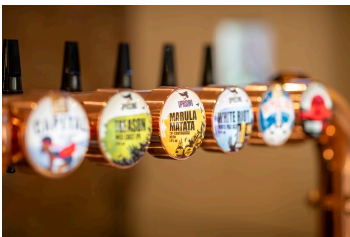

Please note that the start of Paddy's pub crawl is now at 5pm. There was a significant omission in the original plan that warranted a change from the original time. The Swan is really happy to host the start of this annual event. It finishes up in The George later in the evening.

Live Music – The Soul Works Duo

Sunday 22nd, 7pm

We are extremely pleased that lassen and Zoe are returning to The Swan for an acoustic evening. They went down a storm during the summer so we are sure it will another excellent evening.

Christmas Opening Hours

24th – 26th December

The Swan will be open during the festive period so you can have a traditional Christmas drink.

Matt and the bar team would be really happy to see you:

Building Update

Despite the cold and rain, the Building Team and Weekday Warriors have been working away continuing the restoration of the pub. Apart from plaster boarding the ceiling in the kitchen, they have been doing some necessary work in the upper floors of the building.

A company came in early in the week to work on the drains with the aim to prevent re-occurrence of the regular blockages we have been experiencing. Apart from clearing the drains out, and using cameras to examine the drains, they also lined the drains.

And wee Scott our regular plumber was back. He was making some additions and modifications behind the bar and in the cellar, and also connecting up the radiator in the office.

The Weekday Warriors will be about next week if you have any spare time to donate towards the renovation work. Everyone is welcome regardless of skills. Please note that we are working during daylight hours only.

Many thanks to all those that took part in our Facebook auction. This closed on Thursday evening and all winners have now been notified. More about this, and the children's gifts that the community have donated to the Salvation Army, very shortly.

May we wish you and your family joy, love and peace over the Christmas and Holiday period.

Merry Christmas!

Warm regards,

Will, Richard, Matt and the team
