

BRATWURST AND MINI-MARKET

16 October 2020

Hi Friend,

More excitement at The Swan this week with even more on offer including:

- Oktoberfest weekend
- Bratwurst added to the BBQ menu
- Mini-market and Brunch

Read on to see even more reasons to pay us a visit this week.

OKTOBERFEST WEEKEND

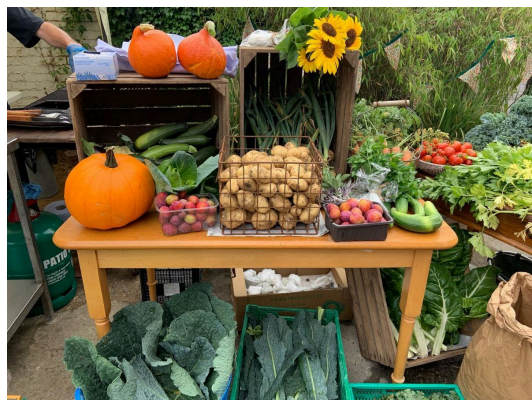

It's arrived - a big Oktoberfest 'Willkommen' at The Swan from today until Sunday. As well as all our usual offerings there will be draft German beer at great prices and available in traditional 'stein' mugs. Lederhosen and traditional Bavarian dress not compulsory but certainly encouraged.

Ian and Tony will be firing up the BBQ again on Saturday (5-8) and Sunday (12-3) adding some German specials to the usual delights. The weather forecast is definitely autumnal but the BBQ will be hot and tasty!

SUNDAY MINI-MARKET

Back by popular demand our mini-market returns to the Courtyard on Sunday from 12-3. Fresh produce from the Green Room allotment, cheese from the Cheesemunger and many more stalls offering a range of irresistible products. Our BBQ experts will also be there cooking another delicious brunch.

SWAN BRANDED CLOTHING

A variety of Swan branded clothing is now available to purchase. Hoodies and beanie hats to keep you warm.

We also have an array of stylish polo shirts in a variety of sizes, male and female.

Take a look in the pub or on-line here.

MONDAY BOOKCLUB

The Book Club will meet again on Monday evening from 8-9 either in person at The Swan or virtually. If you would like to join please email for more details.

TUESDAY CRIBBAGE

Whether you are a beginner or an experienced player there is another opportunity to join in the fun at The Swan on Tuesday between 7-9pm. No prior knowledge required.

WEDNESDAY QUIZ NIGHT

Quiz master Craig will be back in the chair again on Wednesday. Please note the slightly earlier start time of 7:30 to ensure a timely completion before the Covid curfew.

You are advised to book your table either in person when visiting the pub or by phoning 07458 300026.

FRIDAY TAKEAWAY

Why not treat yourself to a Friday Takeaway to get the weekend started. The offer from our friends at Dublicious this week is a choice of Lamb with Mint Chilli Sauce or Red Pepper Halloumi. Free range loin of lamb with a chilli & mint sauce. Served with red potato & black olive salad, tomato & avocado salad, red cabbage & carrot slaw and herb green salad. Order by midday on Wednesday for collection from The Swan 6-8pm on Friday 23rd.

BINGO WINNERS

Despite our regular caller looking less smart than usual, a great turnout on Wednesday saw multiple winners in the latest Swan Bingo. Congratulations to Stephanie, Sandra, Mark, Nu, Peter, Kat and Louise.

GR6 UPDATE

GR6 began the week by recording game shows devised by the students over the last few weeks. The first ever episodes of 'Cake or Death' - the ridiculous debate game that gets weird fast - and 'Snitches get Stitch' - the heist caper game that tests your wit and skill under suspicion, were played in front of a live studio audience. It was great fun, with lots of teamwork and communication on show from all participants.

Tuesday saw a trip to Sunbury Antiques Market, as part of the Bargain Hunt re-creation. Each student was allocated £5.00 to try and turn a profit in the weird and wonderful world of curios, trinkets and old knick-knackery.

The purchases will be put on sale at Windsor Auctions and any profit will go to the school's charitable cause in Ghana. Lots of fun was had, and it was great to see our students interacting with the colourful characters who ply their trade in the antiques game.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR

A relatively quiet week this time last year but we still had:

- Pete built two new bench seats in the window alcove
- Side door externals were top coated
- Safety signs removed from the main gates.

Quiet perhaps but still plenty of work getting done.

The weather suggests that winter is on its way but there is a very warm Willkommen at The Swan this weekend and every night of the week.

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
