BUILDING UPDATE

The Weekday Warriors continue to impress with their stamina, enthusiasm and ability to get down and dirty! Another busy week has seen them almost finished with the clearing out of the areas needed for our new kitchen. With the demolition work now nearly complete the next phase, construction, will be starting very soon. Please take a look at our Renovation Diary to see just how far we have come already.

As well as having far too much fun in the process, our busy Warriors have shifted a great deal of rubbish. All the rubble that has been removed from the kitchen, stockroom and cold store is now in the courtyard awaiting removal.

On the dark and wet nights there is plenty on offer as we continue to heed the advice 'Stay Home, Keep Safe'.

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
