

MOVING FORWARD AT A GALLOP

19 February 2021

Hi Friend,

The evenings are drawing out, we are still in lockdown but, with so much still on offer via The Swan we are neither down nor out:

- 2021 Swan Charity chosen
- 6 March spectacular to look forward to
- Trace your Family History
- Another brick in the kitchen wall

And lots more - read on:

SWAN CHARITY OF THE YEAR 2021

After nearly 1,200 votes were cast the Swan Charity for 2021, as chosen by the Community, is The Windsor Homeless Project. Congratulations to the winner and commiserations to those that were not successful on this occasion.

We are delighted to be able to support this worthy cause and look forward to supporting them throughout the coming year. For more details of their wonderful work please visit their website.

WEDNESDAY QUIZ

After Boris makes his announcement on Monday the next questions will be posed, and answered, in The Swan quiz on Wed at 8pm. With guest hosts, RubyQ, we are bound to be in for a challenging and entertaining event.

Why not join us for an evening of free entertainment? All the details you need can be found here.

THE FRIDAY TAKEAWAY

Choose between delicious Chicken & Ham Pithivier or our vegetarian option of Leek, Chestnut & Mushroom Pithivier.

Order here by noon on Wed 24 Feb for collection from The Swan 6-7pm Fri 26.

6 MARCH EVENT

Not long to wait for the next Saturday evening spectacular. In fact, we are Under Starter's Orders for 6th March for an evening of horse racing with themed beers to match! Please join us for the "Clewer Gold Cup". Save the date - full details will be revealed this time next week.

BINGO WINNERS

Bingo dabbers were in action again online on Wednesday evening. With Richard Douglas finally able to shout BINGO the list of those not eligible for the virtual cruise is shrinking.

The other winners this week, who had already booked their place at the Captain's table, were Martin Payne, Peter Clifford, Jayne Hosmer, Sophie Drake and Debbie Hodkin.

R&A GOOD CHEER AWARDS

FAMILY HISTORY

Do you know the history of your family? Would you like some help to uncover the achievements, or misdemeanours, of your ancestors? Local historian Tom Wigley is running a second set of online tutorials to help you get started. The first session is on Tue 23 Feb. For full details please follow this link.

CAMRA PUB OF THE YEAR

The Swan is delighted to have been chosen by Slough, Windsor & Maidenhead CAMRA as one of eight finalists in their Pub of the Year (POTY) 2021 Awards.

BUILDING UPDATE

Time to start putting it back together! The Weekday Warriors have been joined by the 'brickies' who have started rebuilding the walls to secure the steel beam and new lintels over the doorways.

To all local CAMRA members , if you've enjoyed your visits to The Swan , please vote for us. We would love to be POTY! For more details about the benefits of CAMRA membership please visit their website.

Next the fireplace wall will be completed, and the pipe work for services are being planned out before the floor is filled and laid. The plan for the kitchen has moved forward significantly and initial drawings look exciting.

We are hoping to win a Good Cheer Award from the local magazine R&A - but we need your vote. If you have enjoyed our many online events, we would be obliged if you click on this link, nominate The Swan and follow the instructions.

TV Chef Tom Kerridge is fronting these awards - it would be great to see him down at The Swan!

With so much on offer we hope there is something for everyone. Please join us but above all keep safe.

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
