BUILDING UPDATE

Work has continued inside and out this week with the Warriors turning their busy hands to many tasks. The team welcomed a new volunteer, Thomas Gyongyossy, who got straight to work sorting some of the roof tiles. Inside, Tony and Ian have been tackling some dry rot which needs urgent attention. Tony and John have also spent time stripping paint off some recently arrived tables then sanding and staining to bring them back to their former glory for all to now enjoy in The Courtyard.

So much going on that you need to come and see for yourself.

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
