DRINKS ORDERING APP

You now have the option to order and pay for your drinks from your table. These can either be collected at the bar or delivered to your table, you choose. This is provided by a third party specialist company called ROUND. You will need to download and subscribe to their service, more details can be found here.

WINDSOR CYCLE HUB

With one eye on the Tokyo Velodrome the WCH team will be back at The Swan at noon on Sat 7 Aug providing advice about all things bike! They even have coffee and cake on offer.

Unfortunately there will not be a guided ride this week. For more details about WCH please visit their website or take a look here.

SWAN BOOK CLUB

Book lovers are most welcome at The Swan monthly book club which returns this week - online and face to face at the pub. This Mon 9 Aug at 8pm they will be discussing their last shared book, 'The Murmur of Bees' by Sofia Segovia. The club members only share four books per year, the rest of the time enjoying talking about their current or recently enjoyed books. It's a great way to learn of new authors and genres that you may not have tried before. They are a friendly group and would love to meet like-minded readaholics!

BUILDING UPDATE

The volunteers have continued to turn their hand to many varied tasks this week, too many to do justice to here. Tony can be seen preparing a new support beam for The Kitchen ensuring that the first fix electricity and water pipes remain uninterrupted. At the AGM it was reported that a further 8 beams needed to be reinforced in the ceiling. Thanks to our Warriors 3 have been completed and 4 more are in progress. Meanwhile Thomas, amongst other tasks this week, has been displaying his carpentry skills as part of the SwanFest preparations.

No need to wait for the SwanFest, come and enjoy fun, friends and fine beer this week as well..

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
