

SPORTING SUCCESS AND FESTIVAL FEVER IS MOUNTING

5 August 2022

Hi Friend,

The Lionesses brought it home and The Swan is gearing up for SwanFest coming home (thankfully without such a long wait!). Read on for many more reasons to join us in the coming weeks.

IT'S COME HOME!

Where were you when the Lionesses brought it home? Were you at The Swan celebrating this fantastic achievement after too many years of hurt? Remember the moment and hopefully it won't be as long before we can bring it home again.

THE SWAN'S OWN BREW!

Under careful supervision of the team at WEBrew Micky has brewed a Swan Special that will be available at the forthcoming SwanFest. This will be a red IPA at 4.5% ABV. Lighter than a Guardsman in colour with a lovely red tinge that should taste crisp and slightly fruity and be clear in the pour. Adam Chojnacki is the proud winner of the 'name that beer' competition with his highly appropriate choice of Feathered Friend. Join him at SwanFest to try it for yourself.

SUMMER OPENING HOURS

Making the most of the warm weather The Swan a reminder that summer opening hours have been extended. Until further notice they are:

Monday - Friday Noon - 11pm; Saturday 11am - 11pm; Sunday Noon - 10pm
Even more time to enjoy all The Swan has to offer

SATURDAY CYCLE HUB

Another opportunity to explore the local area on two wheels with an experienced guide to show you the way. Members of Windsor Cycle Hub will be on hand at The Swan on Sat 6 Aug offering minor repairs and advice from 11:00 with a gentle guided ride departing at 11:30 for approximately one hour (please arrive by 11:15 to get your bike checked before the ride). Booking in advance for both the Bike Kitchen and Guided Ride is advised. Full details here.

SWANFEST 2022

SwanFest is back by popular demand and there isn't long to wait. This three day festival will be live at The Swan 19-21 Aug with a full programme of events and entertainment to suit everyone. The line up has been revealed and more details will emerge in advance of the main event. Keep an eye out here and get the date in your diary.

CYCLE VOLUNTEERS

The Cycle Hub team have shared their love of cycling with the people of Windsor for almost year. They are all volunteers and, if they are to continue to support visitors of all ages and cycling ability they need more volunteers to help with Guided Rides and bike maintenance. If you are interested in helping others to get moving why not come along to The Swan at 7pm on Tue 9 Aug? See here for further details.

WEDNESDAY QUIZ

On Wed 10 Aug, Martin is back with a summer holiday friendly quiz, the 24th that he has presented, with questions on: It's obviously, Inventive, Are you chicken?, County Towns, and One for the Road. 7:30pm for 7:45pm start, the Swan Quiz is £2 per player, teams of 6 (maximum) and has a prize of £25. The Raffle Jackpot has rolled over to £20 and everyone has the chance to win that. So "come on down!"

FRIDAY TAKEAWAY

There will be no Friday Feast from Dublicious on 12 Aug but they will be back.....! Fri 19 Aug is BBQ weekend. Further details will be published next week or if you want to get in early take a look here.

CHARITY COFFEE MORNING

Sincere thanks to all those who baked and ate our cakes last Friday. Together we were able to raise £288.11 for our 2022 Community Charity, Family Friends. These funds will be put to good use as the charity continues to face an increasing demand for its support. Follow this link for more information about this very important local charity.

MINI MARKET SUCCESS

The sun shone, the stall holders were ready and the BBQ was kept busy. Another successful mini market at The Swan saw some new local vendors as well as the return of some firm favourites. Take a look here for more images of the many interesting and varied stalls.

Celebrations galore and more than enough reasons to have another rendition of Sweet Caroline! Join us and help keep the party going.

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
