

RAISE THE ROOF & LEVEL THE FLOOR

11 November 2022

Hi Friend,

Amazing progress this week as two major renovation projects got underway with, weather permitting, completion due this year. Building work is not all that's happening. With so much still going on there has never been a better time to visit The Swan.

BUILDING UPDATE

It's been an exciting and productive week at The Swan with work starting on the roof! Paul has been systematically working through each problem area to make sure it is water tight before the scaffold can begin to come down. Meanwhile a group of hard working warriors Trevor, John and Glenn cleared the remaining rubble from the back of the coach house and cemented in the holes in preparation for a new floor to be laid next month. Remind yourself of exactly how far we have come already by taking a look at the Renovation Diary.

A call to arms. Warriors unite! We need painters to help regenerate the Coach House ahead of our flooring going down. Join us from 10am on Sunday, grab a brush and help slap on the paint

CYCLE HUB

As it is the second Saturday in the month the Guided Ride is a Gentle Explorer outing. As with every other Saturday the Cycle Hub Bike Kitchen team will be on hand from 11:00 for advice and to help with all manner of guidance on all things bike! Book your slot for the Kitchen and the Guided Ride here or take a look at the Cycle Hub website here.

CHEESE NIGHT

Tue 15 Nov sees the welcome return of a local Cheesemunger with his extensive rang of delicious cheeses. Not only does he bring so many for you to enjoy but he knows all about them and is only too pleased to advise you on each and every one. The pub Kitchen is closed on Tuesdays so why not indulge in some cheese? 7pm in The Bar.

FRIDAY TAKEAWAY

There will be no Friday Feast from Dublicious on 18 Nov but don't despair, there is still no need to cook your own meal. Take a look here to remind you of what is on offer from the Swan Kitchen.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

Despite the unseasonal weather there is no escaping the fact that Christmas will soon be upon us. Why not get in the mood with Breakfast with Santa at The Swan on 17 Dec. There are still some places available for this very special event. Book now via email (pub.manager@theswanwindsor.co.uk) or phone (07458 300026).

QUIZ WINNERS

Another fabulous evening of quiz fun saw Swan Patrol crowned as the team who knew most about obscure facts dreamt up by question master Martin. While Emily won the prize raffle scooping the Jackpot of £10. The second consecutive time that the Jackpot has been claimed meaning it will start again at £10 on Wed 23 November. Join us to test your skills at 7:30pm for 7:45 start.

GR6 UPDATE

GR6 and Wings have been busy meeting some much loved members of the local community this week. On Monday they paid a visit to Windsor Auctions on the Vansittart Trading Estate, where owner Harry gave a fascinating talk on the antiques and auction business. This was before heading over to Sunbury Antiques fair on Tuesday to pick up some bargains and hopefully make a profit at auction.

On Wednesday, Swan Elders saw the return of our favourite joke set up: “A priest and a Dr walk into a bar....” Clewer's very own Rev. Rosie and Dr. Ed came back for a second year running to talk about their roles within the community and answer any questions students have about life, death, religion, health, wellbeing...anything really. Thanks Rosie and Ed for taking the time to visit again!

Our young learners continue to create and run some really special events at The Swan. Carly's Stay & Play on Wednesdays is a lovely time for families to come to the pub and enjoy a quiet coffee while the little ones are entertained. The pop up restaurant night, Tasty Tuesday by Green Canteen, kicked off this week with some amazing dishes being served to evening diners. Epic Thursday is still a firm favourite for breakfast fans and coffee lovers each week.

If you haven't come along to any of these events yet, all staffed by students at The Green Room, then you're missing a trick! Stay and Play returns on Wednesday 16th, Epic Thursday on the 17th, while Tasty Tuesday's next kitchen takeover will be January 10th.

The renovation work never stops but amazing progress is promised before the end of 2022. If you can answer the call for painters please join us on Sun 13 Nov from 10 AM. Whenever you can make it your company at The Swan is always welcome, eating, drinking or painting!

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
