

GUEST BEER, BARBIE AND BOOKS!

7th July 2023

Hi Friend,

With Wimbledon came the rain, of course! But there's still a warm and sunny welcome down at The Swan this week, with plenty to keep you entertained whatever the weather!

THE SWAN NEEDS YOU!

How would you like to be part of Windsor's Number 1 award winning community pub? We are looking for budding Front of House volunteers to help our bar staff during busy periods by welcoming and chatting with our patrons, clearing tables, delivering food & drink to tables and collecting empty glasses. To find out more, take a look at the more detailed Role Description here and if you're interested drop us an email at:

volunteers@theswanwindsor.co.uk

Events coming up where help would be appreciated are Christmas in July (22-23 July) and Swan Fest (11-13 August).

WHAT'S ON THIS WEEK

A Fabulous Guest Beer

Often touted as the world's best Pilsner, Rothaus is indeed a stunning example of clean, delicious lager brewing. The brewery itself was founded by the abbot of a monastery in the German Black Forest. This beer always sells quickly at Oktoberfest due to its great taste and its popularity. Available now!

Saturday 8th: Windsor Cycle Hub

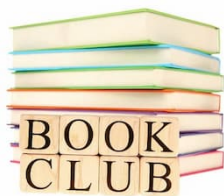

This week's guided ride is a Level 2 Gentle Explorer which maintains a comfortable pace for beginners but aims to up the distance. Sets off at 11.30am but please arrive 15mins early for bike checks etc. The Bike Kitchen will also be here from 11am for help maintaining your bike. Book for either or both here.

Sunday 9th: BBQ

Sunday is set to turn warm again so what better way to enjoy a lazy afternoon than with a delicious BBQ in the courtyard, with a cold accompanying pint! Or with Wimbledon Men's and Ladies' 4th round matches on the box, maybe a Pimms! Serving from 12noon to 6pm.

Tuesday 11th: Book Club, Ukulele and Warhammer

The Swan Book Club will be in the bar from 7.30pm on Tues evening for their monthly meeting. All welcome - don't worry if you haven't read anything to discuss as there will be enough recommendations amongst us and if you have a book you wish to pass on do please bring it along! Chatter and Natter is back this and every Weds between 1pm and 3pm – we now have a good few regulars who welcome anyone who just fancies stopping by for a chat! More details here - why not come a join us?

And Martin is back on Weds evening with another Pub Quiz unique to The Swan! GR6 UPDATE

In the last couple of weeks GRC students have climbed mountains, swam in waterfalls, been to festivals, entered wild garden competitions, gained loads of work experience and yesterday capped it all off with another wonderful Epic Big Hearted BBQ, raising over £150 for The Baby Bank and hosting the mayor.

Next week will be our last of the term, and we'll be celebrating all of these achievements and more with an Awards Evening at The Swan on Tuesday before our last day of the year on Wednesday. It's been an amazing year and we'd like to thank The Swan community members for all of their support. We look forward to seeing you all again in September. GRC out!

Whatever takes your fancy there's something for all at Windsor's #1 Community Pub – keep a lookout for up-to-date info on our social media pages throughout the week and visit the Future Events page on our website here for details of everything coming up! We look forward to seeing you soon!

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
