GRC UPDATE

GRC had a great festive time for their final week of the autumn term. The hugely successful Winter Fayre on Saturday got us off to a great start and we'd like to thank everyone who came and supported the event.

This week we decorated a tree for Rev Rosy in the St Andrews churchyard.

We've been visited by Graham from Berkshire Reptiles who brought along his lizards, skinks, snakes and a tortoise. We ventured up to Windsor on Ice for a thrilling (and spilling) hour on the rink. We've eaten our traditional Japanese Christmas lunch and hosted our end of term awards in the pub. To cap it all off, today we toured the State Apartments of the Castle before heading to the Old Court for our annual staff panto, which this year was a hilarious take on Robin Hood.

We're exhausted and off now until early January. From all at The Green Room, have a wonderful Christmas and a happy New Year.
