

BOARDGAMES, BINGO AND BRUNCH

10th May 2024

Hi Friend,

There's fun in the Courtyard this week as the sun is promising to stay out at last! But if it does still turn chilly of an evening there's plenty to do inside the pub too!

WHAT'S ON AT THE SWAN!

Back by popular demand....it's BINGO night on Thursday 16th May! Card sales from 7.30pm with dabbers out and eyes down at 8pm! Book your table now!

May the 4th be with you!

The Jedi and Sith came out in full force for May the 4th be with you. The sun was shining, Darth Lainey performed a fabulous couple of sets of live music and Admiral Ackbar's Snack Bar was a roaring success... Not to forget a very fortunate visit from the Mandalorian sniper! Thank you all for supporting and basking in our sun trap garden! More pics here.

Quiz Winners

Micky was back in the chair at this week's pub quiz, aided by Peter who stepped into the breach to solve an un-anticipated sound problem. With delicious irony the "Stereo Not Working Swans" grabbed the £25 top prize, whilst Daniel from Four Candles chose the coveted Packet of Crisps raffle prize. The next quiz is on Weds 22nd May when Quiz Lord Martin will be back and the roll over raffle jackpot will be £80! Tables fill up fast - book yours now!

COMING SOON....OPEN FORUM

The Directors have pleasure in inviting you to the next Open Forum which will be held in the Coach House Monday 20th May from 7:30pm. The Open Forum is an opportunity for all supporters of The Swan to hear from the Directors about current status and plans for the future, and to allow you to raise issues, make comments, and generally contribute to discussions about our pub and community. Hollie, Richard, Willie and GM Micky will all be present - make a note in your diary now!

GRC UPDATE

Our Swan Elder this week was long-time GRC supporter, Rev Rosie Webb. Rosie gave us a fascinating tour of St Andrew's Church, one of the oldest buildings in Windsor and perhaps Clewer's most famous landmark, after The Swan, of course. Rosie took questions from the students about the church building, faith, and her work in the parish. Thank you Rosie! Meanwhile, Epic

Thursdays have taken on an 'al fresco' vibe, thanks to the clement weather, and the courtyard was busy with satisfied diners this week.

HISTORY SNIPPET

This week we take a step back nearly ten years to when Steve Hoey was landlord. He organised Swan-Fest with scooters, motorbikes, BBQ and a DJ. Remember this? Read more on our dedicated Facebook page here.

So whether you want to just chill with a drink in the sun, or prime your dabber and practice your (no 17) Dancing Queen, there's something for everyone down at The Swan this week!

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
