

SUMMER FUN CONTINUES AT THE SWAN

2 August 2024

Hi Friend,

With so much to look back on, and to look forward to, there really has never been a better time to be a part of all that the Swan has to offer. Read on for the all the details.

THAT WAS THE WEEK THAT WAS

Not only did our usual activities run this week but we also threw in a wedding reception and a Mamma Mia sing along. Kate and Chris celebrated their big day with family and friends in glorious sunshine. The hot weather continued to provide the perfect setting for a Mamma Mia sing along held in the wedding marquee. More wedding photos here and Mamma Mia here.

THE FUN KEEPS ON COMING THIS WEEK

New to The Swan, The Windsor Town Funrunners will be meeting in the Courtyard on Weds 7 Aug at 6.45pm for a 5km, circular run in the local area. Finish back at the pub for a well-deserved drink if you wish! The group very much shares The Swan's values and welcomes everyone – those tentatively trying a slow 5km for the first time as much as those aiming for personal bests, with staggered start times if necessary so everyone finishes together, approx 7.30pm. No need to book, just turn up and ask for Grant and Tom. WTF (yes, it's deliberate!) why not give it a go?!

In true Olympic style a tie-break was needed to confirm the winner this week. Hetties Heroes, with special guest subs, just pipped Desperados to the £25 prize. All was not lost as Steve, a Desperados regular, held the winning raffle ticket scooping a packet of crisps! As he didn't win the cash jackpot this rolls over to £120 at the next quiz on Wed 14 August. Book your table to be in with a chance.

HISTORY SNIPPET

A summary of one of Clewer's characters - Venus Britannia Hearn - and her miscreant husband Francis has been posted recently. Today's post is regarding a 1711 document, currently the oldest found, about William Round taking up the tenancy. It includes an image of the original 300yo document held at the Royal Berkshire Archive.

We said it was a great time to be a part of the action at our community pub. We look forward to welcoming you soon.

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
