Did you know that all the draft beer and cider served at The Swan comes from independent breweries and ciderworks, including WEBrew and others? Since the growth of craft brewing, the major brewers have devised many tricks to obscure the difference to consumers - including buying and inventing their own “craft” brands. Most drinkers think Camden and Beavertown are independent for example— but they're not, being owned by ABInBev Budweiser and Heineken respectively.

So, how can you tell the provenance of the brew you are drinking? The Society of Independent Brewers and Associates (SIBA) have come to the rescue with their Inde Beer Campaign, which aims to promote public awareness of independent producers.

You can find out more about the campaign and try their simple online tool to check whether any brewery is truly independent by clicking here. But here at The Swan you have our word – if it's on draft, it's independent!

GRC UPDATE

Yesterday, GRC welcomed Castro and Mary to The Swan, our friends from the village of Mankoadze in Ghana. They gave a Swan Elders talk to the students about life in the village, Castro's vocational college and the work Mary does as a community nurse. GRC have been linked with Mankoadze for many years now but this is the first time we've met in person, and it was a real pleasure to talk about the common goals of our respective organisations' approach to education.

COMING SOON!

And if you haven't already, SAVE THE DATE for our Community Pub's 6th Birthday Party Weekend over 18th-20th July. Events are still being planned, but you can be assured of a cracking good time – look out for more details coming soon!

Are you up for a sausage on Father's Day? Or a free glass of fizz - at two o'clock on a Tuesday afternoon?! Oh yes, it's all happening this week down at The Swan, your favourite Community Pub, we look forward to seeing you soon!

Warm regards,

The Friends of The Swan
