COMMUNITY NEWS

Calling all members of CAMRA Slough, Windsor and Maidenhead! We have once again been nominated for the branch Pub of the Year 2026: maybe this will be our year?! But we'll need your help against a strong field! If you are a CAMRA SWM member you will have received an e-mail with details of how to vote – we'd be proud and honoured to receive yours!

Yesterday's Bingo Night was one of the biggest ever, with plenty of small and large drink prizes and a stonking £41 in Top of The Bill cash round. The Bingo Gods smiled on Lucky Lisa who did the double and there'll be lots more photos of the night's winners on our website shortly. If it looks like fun that's because it is, so why not join us on Thurs 19th March at 7.30pm when we'll be doing it all over again!

Our intrepid General Manager is taking on the biggest challenge he's faced so far. As an absolute novice in the ring, Micky 'the Landlord' Foden-Andrews is taking part in a charity boxing match on 14th March – that's just 3 weeks' time! In memory of his uncle who lost his battle to cancer last year, all money raised will be going to the amazing Thames Valley Hospice. His walk on music is 'Eye of the Tiger' recorded by our very own Windsor Ukulele Band too! If you can spare anything, and would like to sponsor him, you can do so by clicking here.

Don't forget our new Online Shop is now up and running for all your great value Swan-branded clothes and gifts for young and old! Including our Kids' T-Shirts and Swan Teddies for your little people and arctophiles! Our special Swan Rugby Shirts are discounted at just £30 until mid-March – take a look at the samples available in the bar now! See what else is on offer by clicking through to the shop using the orange button below:
